Welcome to the Portweinmesse

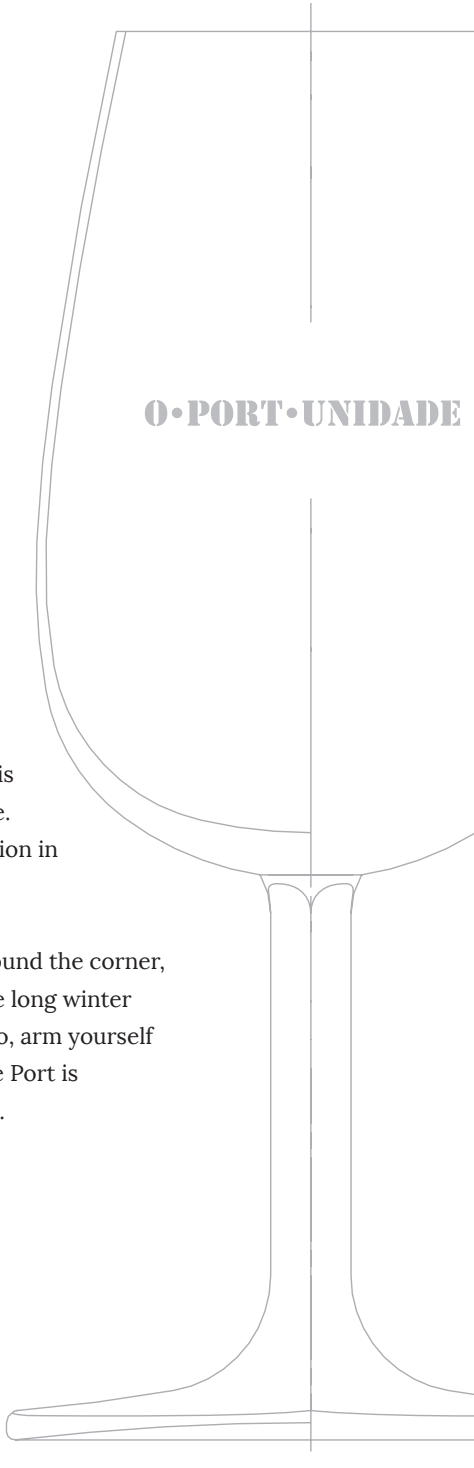

After seven long years of waiting, the Douro Valley is united again to present another uniformly good year of Vintage Port from 2024. There have been great Ports between 2017 and 2024, but not across the producers in one year. You (and I) have the pleasure to taste some 30 of these here today in Leverkusen, amongst them all of the very rare limited editions. I am sure that you are able to find those.

Since the sweet German wines have the same challenges (sweet and not self-explanatory), you can also taste some Top-level German Rieslings from Bassermann-Jordan, Nik Weis, Andreas Bender, Niepoort & Freunde and for the first time from Mönchhof at the lovely Mosel.

As a very dear friend and special guest I am very happy to also welcome Disznoko from Tokaj in Hungary with its Director Laszlo Meszaros. Please do not miss the opportunity to pass by his booth and taste his wonderful sweet wines from the world's oldest classified wine region in Tokaj.

If you did not donate enough this year, you can combine buying the unique O-PORT-UNIDADE Vintage Port 2023 and donating with this project to bagosdouro, which helps underprivileged children in the Douro Valley to receive a better education. For our German buyers, the donation is tax-deductable. But do only purchase this at the entrance when you are happy after tasting the Port. To save you the question: The O-PORT-UNIDADE Colheita is only to taste at the Portweinmesse, not to purchase. But you can return year after year to see the evolution in the cask and someday...

By the time you read this, Christmas will be just around the corner, and I cannot think of a wine more suitable for those long winter evenings spent with family and friends than Port. So, arm yourself and prepare for long, cold winter evenings, because Port is undoubtedly one of the greatest wines in the world.
