Bayer/Gastronomie

Welcome to the Portweinmesse

Once again, I am very happy to welcome you to the unofficial capital of Port in Germany: the Bayer Kasino in Leverkusen. The Portweinmesse has been a highlight for Port fans from all across Europe for more than a decade, and I am delighted to say that we have visitors from at least twelve countries present today.

Port needs marketing, perhaps more than ever before. Since the Douro does not have a proper marketing organisation – unlike Germany, where the VDP is doing a great job of promoting German wines – the producers need to organise this themselves or accept a constant decline every year. Although old Tawnies are the fastest growing category, young Vintage Port is not since you buy high alcohol, high calory wines that needs storing for decades.

In terms of marketing, I was able to bring together the Douro once again to produce the second edition of the O-PORT-UNIDADE Vintage Port, with contributions from almost all the major Port houses, as well as an impressive team of winemakers to finalise the blend.

Don't miss your chance to sample the 2013 Vintage Port from a Double Magnum and the new 2023 Vintage Port here. It is on sale at the Portweinmesse, and your purchase will support children in the Douro Valley.

Port also becomes more diverse. Two years ago, I was delighted to write an article on the new 50-year-old Tawny Ports. Just two years later, it was the 80-year-old Tawny Ports that inspired me to do more tasting and write more articles. You will find the essence of Tawny Port in some of these – don't miss your chance to taste them while you're here!

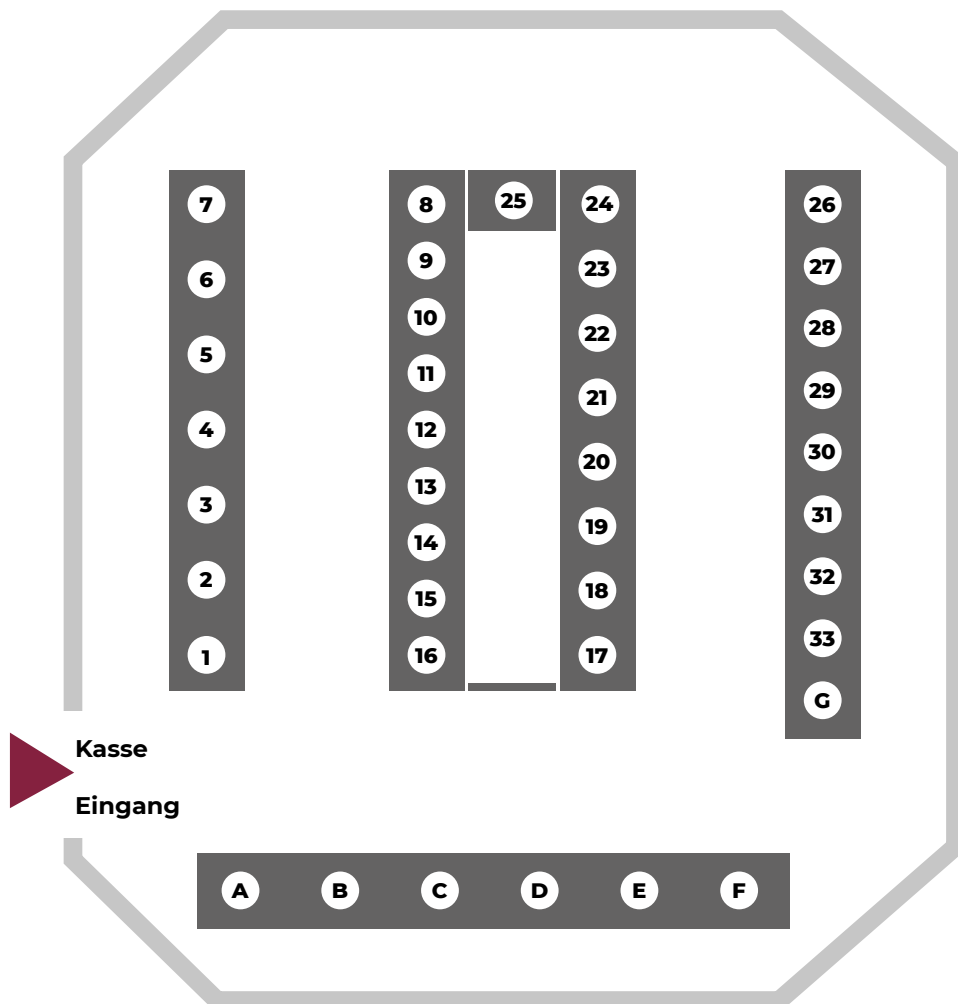

By the time you read this, Christmas will be just around the corner, and I cannot think of a wine more suitable for those long winter evenings spent with family and friends than Port. So, arm yourself and prepare for long, cold winter evenings, because Port is undoubtedly one of the greatest wines in the world.

O-PORT-UNIDADE

THE PORT PROJECT

THE STORY

This Port will be trodden by one VIP of the participating houses. The target profit of 200.000 Euro will be donated again to Bagos d'Ouro, a charity organization, which supports underprivileged children and youngsters in the Douro Valley. Niepoort was so kind to host this project, which is organized by World of Port. The name O-PORT-UNIDADE should express the unity of the Port Houses to manufacture a special Port and the opportunity (port. oportunidade) to support charity in the Douro Valley.

200.000 Euro

of charity money is the aim for this 2nd edition of this project. After 100.000 Euro 10 years ago, we are very optimistic to achieve this

32 Houses

The number of participating houses donating their Port-grapes for this project. This reflects the whole Douro Valley and almost all premium producers.

22nd September

is event day. Everyone will seize harvesting and join the treading and party afterwards. This is exactly the same day as in 2013.

94 Parker Points

The first Vintage Port was highly received by the leading wine critiques around the world. And we also have some Colheita awaiting in the pipas...

THE GRAPES

... originated from all over the Douro Valley. From the furthest westerly point in the Baixo Corgo to the Spanish border. The vines used in the project had an average age of 43,66 years.

The grapes we used were:

40,71% Vinhas Velhas
29,46% Touriga Nacional
15,67% Touriga Franca
5,42% Tinta Roriz
2,79% Touriga Francesa
2,54% Sousao
1,63% Tinta Barroca
1,04% Tinta Amarela
0,75% Alicante Bouschet

THE ENOLOGIST TEAM

The leading enologists of the Douro Valley will ensure that the O-PORT-UNIDADE Vintage Port 2023 will match all expectations from a joint project like this. We met regularly in Porto and discussed the Port. In February 2025 the final blend was chosen. The 2023 O-PORT-UNIDADE enologist team:

Carlos Agrellos, Quinta do Noval
Carlos Alves, Sogevinus
Jorge Alves, Quinta Nova, Quinta do Têdo
Tiago Alves de Sousa, Alves de Sousa
Nick Delaforce, Niepoort
Ricardo Nunes, Churchill
Oscar Quevedo, Quevedo
Ana Rosas, Ramos Pinto
Luis Sottomayor, Sogrape
Charles Symington, Symington Family Estates
Alvaro van Zeller, Andresen, Barao de Vilar
Ex officio: Axel Probst, without a Quinta

„This very special project and the thirty contributing houses represent the whole Douro Valley with all its might and quality. Nothing can go wrong.“
Axel Probst, organisator
